

What your EAP has to offer

Immediate, confidential help for any concern

Your EAP is a confidential and voluntary support service that can help you take the first step towards change. We'll help you find solutions to all kinds of challenges at any age and stage of life. Whether you have decided to get in shape, are considering buying a new home or want to find a better work-life balance—we have the expert insight to get you on your way.

You and your immediate family members (as defined in your employee benefit plan) can receive support over the telephone, in person or online. You'll get immediate, relevant support in a way that is most suited to your preferences, learning approach and lifestyle. Highly qualified, experienced and caring professionals help you select a support option that works best for you.

Your EAP is completely confidential within the limits of the law. No one, including your employer, will ever know that you have used the service unless you choose to tell them.

Available at no cost to you

There is not cost to use your EAP. This benefit is provided to you by your employer. You can receive a series of sessions with a professional and if you need more specialized or longer-term support, your EAP can suggest an appropriate specialist or service that is best suited to your needs. While fees for these additional services are your responsibility, they may be covered by your provincial or organizational health plan.
